Access Management

Guidelines to access Captain Peter

Send

You can send guidelines to access Captain Peter to yourself for review and forward them to your consignees or shippers, or directly send them from here.

Shared Access

How does it work?

You can grant access to Captain Peter's information to your customers. The granted access party (e.g., shipper, consignee) can log in to Captain Peter and view container information for all associated bookings. The access can be turned On/Off whenever needed.

Price owner code	Company name	Customer code	Party	Status

987654321	BlueberryWorld	5453566353	consignee	Access OFF	<input type="checkbox"/>

How does shared access work?

How can I enable access for my consignee or shipper to see their containers on Captain Peter?

Find the shipment party (company name) you want to grant access to and toggle the access button to allow associated parties to see the shipments in Captain Peter.

How can I let my consignee or shipper know they can now see their shipments in Captain Peter?

After the access is enabled, you can send a set of guidelines to yourself to review and then forward them directly to someone you want to help get started. You can do that from the section "Guidelines to access Captain Peter".

Which containers will be visible for my consignee or shipper?

Containers marked as Integrated in Captain Peter will be visible to the consignee or shipper when they log in.

What if the consignee or shipper I shared with does not have an account with any Maersk brand?

If your consignee or shipper does not have an account with any Maersk brand, we will provide information in the guidelines email about where they can create one.

What will happen if I turn OFF the access?

When you disable the access to Captain Peter for a specific consignee or shipper, they will no longer be able to view the shipments on Captain Peter when they try to log-in.
